Class 9-12 Information

A double bloom rose has 16 to 25 petals that overlap in three or more rows, giving a classic rose appearance.

A semi-double bloom = 8 to 15 petals in two rows.

A single Bloom = 1 to 7 petals that are fully opened and almost flat.

Full Bloom = a rose with 26 to 40 petals in three or more rows, that gives a dense, luxurious look.

Very full bloom = more than 40 petals in three or more rows, exceptionally dense and rich.

Note: Any class of rose can have a high petal count, but Hybrid teas are known for their high petal counts and luxurious, full look.
